

TEXAN ASSAILED ON CANCER CLINIC

U. S. Terms Hoxsey Drugs Worthless — Says They Might Spread Disease

WASHINGTON, April 4 (AP)—The government, in a formal warning to the public, said today that the Hoxsey cancer treatment was worthless and in some cases might actually speed the growth of cancer.

The Food and Drug Administration attacked the work of Harry M. Hoxsey in a document published in The Federal Register. It marked the first time the agency had taken precisely such action to warn the public against any medicine or treatment.

Some of the medicine used by Mr. Hoxsey contains potassium iodide, the document said. It added that "there is evidence that potassium iodide accelerates the growth of some cancers." Quite apart from this, it said, the drugs are worthless in the treatment of cancer.

The agency said that in its own lengthy studies it had "not found a single certified cure of internal cancer effected by the Hoxsey treatment."

In addition, it said, the National Cancer Institute reviewed case histories submitted by Mr. Hoxsey and could find "no scientific evidence that  the treatment has any value."

The Food and Drug Administration also said the treatment "represents a gross deception to the consumer. It is imminently dangerous to rely upon it in neglect of competent and rational treatment."

The agency said it "has received reports of deaths which occurred after surgery was forsaken in favor of the Hoxsey treatment while the cancer was still operable and where surgery promised excellent prospects of cure."

The Food and Drug Administration has been battling with Hoxsey for more than eight years. In 1953 it won a Federal court order in Texas prohibiting Mr. Hoxsey and his clinic from shipping its medicines in interstate commerce.

In a statement separate from its formal warning, the agency said it was preparing a contempt of court action accusing Mr. Hoxsey of violating the 1953 court order.

Hoxsey Asks Inquiry

DALLAS, April 4 (UP)—Mr. Hoxsey called today for the appointment of a committee to make an investigation of his clinic.

In a statement released here, he said:

"The Food and Drug Administration charges are slanderous and libelous because they have refused to come to Dallas and make an investigation where we now have over 11,000 patients under treatment and observation.

"If the Pure Food and Drug Administration, the American Medical Association, the Texas State Medical Society or the Surgeon General of the United States will appoint a committee of seven doctors and let me ministers, and if they will come here and make an investigation of the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic and if I fail to prove positively that we have cured both internal and external cancer after radium-X-Ray and surgery failed, I will donate $100,000 to any charitable organization in the United States and will lock the doors of the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic forever.

"I want an investigation—not in test tubes or guinea pigs or mice, I want it made on 11,000 patients that we now have under treatment. If we are the largest cancer clinic in the world why isn't this the place to make a proper investigation?"

[REDACTED] indicated on April 9, 1956 the following concerning a meeting held on April 8, 1956 at "COMMON SENSE", 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey:

He said that it was attended by about 150 persons including CONDE MCGINLEY, BENJAMIN FREEDMAN, [REDACTED] (ph), FATHER KEMELIS, a monsignor of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Newark, N.J. who sat on the dias and HANNAH CUMMINGS, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] MESS HOOKER OF THE Nationalist Party with about 25 of his boys including the [REDACTED] of the NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY. He stated that JAMES MADOLE was unable to attend as he was still in the hospital.

b7C

This source said that [REDACTED] spoke on CATHOLICISM AND LABOR and that ALEX EFIMOV spoke for about 20 minutes in an attempt to prove who runs Russia but that no one knew what he was talking about, except it was about the invisible Jewish government there. Conde McGinley spoke regarding his troubles with the American Jewish Congress and requested help in his fight with these people. Father Kemelis spoke for 30 minutes attacking Communism but nothing of a bigotted or anti-Semitic nature.

This source said that then WEST HOOKER asked for the floor and opened an attack on McGinley for refusing to cooperate with him. He asked if McGinley hopes to beat the enemy by writing about them and added that " we know the brains of the anti-Christian conspiracy and we know ^{how} what to stop them". At this the crowd became very excited and shouted at Hooker to leave. McGinley then answered Hooker and said that Common Sense would not have him and his ideas.

Later refreshments were served and a collection of $137 was taken in. This collection was supervised by Hannah Cummings and some literature was also sold.

T-1 indicated in April, 1956, that the subject publication planned to print a one million copy issue regarding HOKSEY's cancer cure. A meeting was held at the Common Sense Headquarters in Union, New Jersey, on 4/8/56, at which CONDE MC GINLEY was the principal speaker and about 150 persons attended. "Common Sense" reportedly printed the March issue of the National Renaissance Bulletin and 5000 copies of an anti-Semitic leaflet for the National Renaissance Party. The March and April, 1956 issues of "Borba", written by ALEY EFIMOV, were published by the captioned organization. "Common Sense" has attempted to obtain Arab speakers for its meetings.

DETAILS:

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, indicated on April 5, 1956, that a source which he termed reliable but whom he declined to identify had indicated that CONDE MC GINLEY, editor of "Common Sense", had indicated that he was in contact with HARRY HOXSEY on April 4, 1956. He indicated that HOXSEY planned a million copy issue of "Common Sense" regarding HOXSEY's cancer cure. MC GINLEY indicated that this issue had been delayed a long time but now that HOXSEY had received nationwide publicity through an attack by the Food and Drug Administration that he would go ahead with this issue and expose those "sheenie doctors" and those "Jew devils" who are also trying to force floridation down our throats.

The "New York Times" dated April 5, 1956, under the headline entitled "Texan Assailed On Cancer Clinic" stated that the Food and Drug Administration attacked the work of HARRY M. HOXSEY and termed his drugs for the treatment of cancer as worthless.

T-1 further indicated on May 9, 1956, that he has received no information indicating that any further plans have been made by MC GINLEY and HOXSEY for the publication of this issue.

T-1 indicated on April 9, 1956, that a meeting was held on April 8, 1956, at the headquarters of Common Sense, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. He said it was attended by 150 persons including CONDE MC GINLEY, who was the principal speaker, and BENJAMIN FREEDMAN, [redacted] (phonetic), Father KEMELIS, a Monsignor of Holy Trinity Catholic Church

DETAILS CONT'D:

In an article appearing in Issue No. 246 of "Common Sense", dated February 15, 1956, appearing under the caption "American Jewish Congress Strikes at Heart of Common Sense", there is a discussion on the efforts of the American Jewish Congress to force CONDE MC GINLEY out of business. In this article, the following paragraph appears: "During the past 10 years, Mr. MC GINLEY has been exposing un-American forces and protecting himself against vicious attacks of the American Jewish Congress and others, he spent every dollar he had. The American Jewish Congress, not content, is now engaged in trying to destroy the new corporation, CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, of which Mr. MC GINLEY is an officer at no salary."

In Issue No. 249 of "Common Sense", dated April 1, 1956, there is an appeal for funds, in which it is stated that the $30,000 judgment obtained by Rabbi PRINZ, of Newark, against CONDE MC GINLEY is an excuse used in an effort to break down the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, of which CONDE MC GINLEY is a non-paid officer.

Publications Available Through CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, Union, New Jersey

In Issue No. 241 for November 1, 1955, of "Common Sense", there is an ad for the book "The Iron Curtain Over America" by Col. JOHN BEATY, which is available through the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, Union, N.J., for $3.00.

In Issue No. 242 of "Common Sense", dated November 15, 1955, there is an ad for a book by JOHN T. FLYNN captioned "Decline of the American Republic And How to Rebuild It", which is available through the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, Union, N.J., at $3.00 a copy.

NK 105-1910

In Issue No. 242 of "Common Sense", dated November 15, 1955, there is also an appeal to businessmen who are overburdened with taxes to channel funds to the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION for the purpose of building up a strong voice to expose the "slaphappy Marxists in Washington who enjoy spending other peoples money".

In Issue No. 245 of "Common Sense", dated February 1, 1956, there is a story under the caption "Patriots Last Works Available". In this article, it is announced that the Judge Armstrong Foundation of Fort Worth, Texas, had turned over the entire inventory of books of the late Judge GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG to the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION. The article indicates that these booklets are available to the readers of "Common Sense" while they last. Some of the titles available are listed as follows:

"The Crime of '20"	$1.00
"Our Constitution"	1.00
"World Empire"	1.00

Essex County Clerk's Records Reflected Suit Against CONDE MC GINLEY

Records of County Clerk, Essex County, N.J., checked at Essex County Hall of Records, Newark, N.J., on 12/27/56 by SA WILLIAM G. BEDELL reflect that JOACHIM PRINZ instituted action against CONDE MC GINLEY, owner, publisher and editor of a newspaper (not mentioned) for publishing a false and defamatory libel about the plaintiff on March 22, 1953, in Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division.

On April 6, 1955, the action resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, MC GINLEY, in sum of $5,000 compensatory damage and $25,000 punitive damage for a total of $30,000 together with taxed costs.

According to the "Newark Evening News", Newark, N.J., on April 15, 1955, Rabbi JOACHIM PRINZ, of Temple B'NAI ABRAHAM, was awarded the verdict of $30,000 by a jury on March 31, 1955. The judgment included $5,000 in compensation damages and $25,000 in punitive damages against the editor of the semi-monthly four-page tabloid published in Union, N.J., of which CONDE MC GINLEY was the Editor.

CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense", had been sued for his characterization of Dr. PRINZ as a "Red Rabbi, who not unlike ALBERT EINSTEIN was expelled from Germany for revolutionary, Communist activities". This item, written by an associate of CONDE MC GINLEY, characterized in the Newark paper as a Clerk, WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN, appeared originally in the April 1, 1952 issue of "Common Sense".

The Essex County Clerk's records reflect that as of October 31, 1956, plaintiff JOACHIM PRINZ filed complaint indicating that the judgment remains unpaid and unsatisfied except for the sum of $1,000 collected by the plaintiff from other assets of MC GINLEY found in another jurisdiction.

This item regarding the unsatisfied judgment appears in a complaint filed by JOACHIM PRINZ with the Essex County Clerk on October 31, 1956, in which the defendants are listed as CONDE MC GINLEY, CELIA MC GINLEY, KATHERINE LITTIG, CONDE J. MC GINLEY, MARY MARARCHI, MURIEL WENZEL, ALEX JEFIMOW, aka. ALEXEY JEFIMAU, the Christian Educational Association, a New Jersey corporation, Muriel's Inc., a New Jersey corporation, Union Patriotic Press, a non-profit corporation of New Jersey, and unknown defendants JOHN DOE, JOHN ROE and JANE DOE. Docket No. AC-480-56.

This complaint alleges that on March 11, 1953, after being informed of the pending suit, MC GINLEY purchased property known as 530 Chestnut St., Union Township, N.J., from S. ROBERT ELTINGER and in order to conceal the property so purchased from creditors and to render himself judgment proof, MC GINLEY caused the title of said premises to be taken in the name of KATHERINE LITTIG, an unmarried woman having no appreciable assets of her own and who has worked and been associated with MC GINLEY for a number of years.

The complaint further alleges that on March 17, 1954, during pendency of this action and after MC GINLEY had occupied the above premises with complete acquiescence of LITTIG, the defendant, Christian Education Association, a New Jersey corporation, was organized by MC GINLEY and defendants MC GINLEY, JR. and ALEXEY JEFIMAU to succeed MC GINLEY in the ownership and operation of the aforementioned newspaper published by MC GINLEY, all for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding the plaintiff and other existing or future creditors of MC GINLEY.

The complaint continues by tracing property sold or purchased by MC GINLEY and his wife and son as far back as 1940 and indicates that the property had been transferred "without fair consideration" and indicates that MC GINLEY retained control and should be ordered to direct that these properties be conveyed in satisfaction of the judgment.

EUGENE J. KIRK, Newark, N.J., attorney for MC GINLEY, has filed a brief in answer to this complaint as of 11/26/56 citing no cause of action against defendants named in the complaint. Notation on file "no cause".

Reminder to Potential Benefactors of Christian Educational Association

The following item appears in the November 1 issue of "Common Sense":

"A Reminder to Patriots

"May we remind anyone who is inclined to remember this work in their will to specify the Christian Educational Association, Union, N.J.

"If you mention Mr. MC GINLEY, the American Jewish Congress will have it attached for their Vice President--Rabbi PRINZ, Zionist New Deal politician. Just as they did with respect to $1,000 willed to Mr. MC GINLEY by a patriot."

For informational purposes, under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U.S. House of Representatives published a "preliminary report on Neo-Fascist and Hate groups" in which the growth objectives and the editor of "Common Sense" are discussed at length. The report indicates the publication has a fluctuating circulation of between 30,000 and 100,000 copies.

In the HCUA report, "Common Sense" is described as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee". According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi Regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

DETAILS:

Christian Educational Association of Union, N.J.

Under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U.S. House of Representatives published a "preliminary report on Neo-Fascist and Hate groups" in which the growth, objectives and the editor of "Common Sense" are discussed at length. The report indicates the publication has a fluctuating circulation of between 30,000 and 100,000 copies.

In the HCUA report, "Common Sense" is described as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee". According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi Regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

Stockholders in CEA

~~HANNAH CUMMINGS~~, of Philadelphia, mentioned as a stockholder in the most recent Statement of Ownership of CEA appearing in the November 1, 1956 issue of "Common Sense", was reported in 1945 by T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, as having attended meetings of the Philadelphia Chapter of the National Blue Star Mothers of America in Philadelphia on January 11, 1945, February 23, 1945 and March 25, 1945.

The National Blue Star Mothers of America (NBSMA) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported in June of 1950 that HANNAH CUMMINGS had been a dues paying member of the Nationalist Action League (NAL) from February through May of 1950.

The Nationalist Action League (NAL) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Distribution of Published Material

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on 1/9/57 that the CEA had recently sent a large shipment of several 100 lb. packages to [redacted]

[redacted] He indicated that the shipment consisted of approximately 10,000 copies of the publication "The Coming Red Dictatorship", described by him as an anti-Semitic article written by CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense". T-3 indicated that in the shipment, copies of "Common Sense" had been included. T-3 expressed the belief that this material was to be used in the Knoxville, Tenn. area in connection with "the fight for segregation".

The leaflet captioned "The Coming Red Dictatorship" may be described as being of standard newspaper size printed on both sides. It bears the sub-caption "Asiatic Marxist Jews Control Entire World As Last World War Commences. Thousands of Plotters Placed in Key Positions By Invisible Government. Few Were Ever Elected". The leaflet contains 64 "articles" and 50 photographs of individuals alleged to be of Jewish origin, who wield political influence in the United States. At the end of the last item, there is a printed announcement indicating that copies of the leaflet may be ordered from "Common Sense", "the Nation's anti-Communist paper", 530 Chestnut St., Union, N.J.

530 Chestnut St., Union, N.J., is the address of the CEA, publisher of "Common Sense".

Booklets Advertised As Being Available Through CEA

In Issue No. 267 of "Common Sense", dated 1/1/57, there is an announcement indicating that copies of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" and copies of "another amazing booklet", "Jewish Anti-Communist", could be obtained from CEA, Union, N.J.

In Issue No. 269 of "Common Sense", dated 2/1/57, the following pamphlets are advertised as being available through CEA of Union, N.J.:

"Brainwashing" by KENNETH GOFF.
"Civil Rights Revolution" by ALDRICH BLAKE.
"Facts Are Facts" by BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN.
"Federal Reserve Conspiracy"
"Lattimore Story" by JOHN T. FLYNN.
"Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion"
"Zionist Network" by Sen. JACK B. TENNEY.
"Zion's Fifth Column" by Sen. JACK B. TENNEY.

In this same issue, under the headline "Keep Informed", there is an announcement indicating that the CEA has "an excellent assortment of miscellaneous patriotic literature---send 25¢ in stamps or coin for sample packet".

Appeal Issued by CONDE MC GINLEY For Help

In Issue No. 269 of "Common Sense", dated 2/1/57, on page 4, under the heading "Help Us To Help You", CONDE MC GINLEY, the Editor, printed an open letter to his readers. The letter is as follows:

"Friends:

"Those who have studied the all-important question before the world today realize that the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is the back-bone of the Marxist program in the United States. The B'nai B'rith is a Jewish organization functioning on a world-wide scale.

NK 105-1910

"B'nai B'rith has 1750 lodges in the U.S. and Canada, with 400,000 members. According to the NY Times May 4, 1956, they have expended sixty million dollars in the last three years. The A.D.L. is the militant arm of the B'nai B'rith; it is the Invisible Government in the United States.

"In the Communist satellite states, the high government officials have been Jews almost without exception. Before the Jewish rule could be established officially, the leaders opposing Communism had to be broken down and destroyed. During the last three years the Russian Communists, having discovered that the Jews set up Communism to use it in advancing their own interests, have been successful in maneuvering some Jews out of top positions. The population of these countries did not realize what was going on until too late; then they were too helpless to stand behind their leaders.

"This is what is going on in the U.S. today. The Anti-Defamation League with the American Jewish Committee and the American Jewish Congress, using many unsuspecting non-Jews, prominent persons, and fifteen to twenty million dollars a year for propaganda in newspaper, radio and television, are trying to discredit and destroy our patriotic leaders just as they have done with Col. CHARLES LINDBERG, Sen. NYE, Sen. BERT WHEELER, Sen. MC CARTHY, JAMES FORRESTAL and many others.

"The A.D.L. has been pounding away at COMMON SENSE for 11 years, trying to drive its friends away so it will be left standing alone. However, as thinking people, examine the facts published only in one paper, COMMON SENSE,--and our paper has grown until it now reaches more awakened Americans than any publication in existence.

"My assets are in the form of factual information spread all over the United States. Eleven years ago, I quit business for a profit and have spent every dollar I could get my hands on in this Crusade. Some people told me then I was foolish, that Communism meant nothing. Today some of these same people tell me I am wasting my time, that Communism cannot be stopped.

"Long ago I realized I would use up my funds and not make a living promoting a paper which carries no advertising. Anyone who studies this subject as I have, realizes that profit means nothing compared to the importance of saving our Republic.

"COMMON SENSE, with no advertising, will never show a profit but must be subsidized by people who have sufficient patriotism to help make the truth available to many. If there are not enough people ready to sacrifice and help expose the enemies of our country, then freedom in the United States is near the end.

"I am the unpaid Editor of COMMON SENSE. Help me make this movement the decisive factor in turning the Marxist trend that is destroying our government. The need now is for a large number of informed people. Help us raise the number of our readers to a million. If you could visualize how hard we work and plan to increase our effectiveness, nothing could stop you from doing your very best to assist us. Those good people who are awake to the crisis but unable to help substantially can help by renewing their subscription, taking a lifetime subscription ($25.00), buying and distributing literature, securing subscriptions, passing out COMMON SENSE, and last but not least, praying for us. The prayers of any good Christian will not go unheeded.

"If you would like to help me strengthen COMMON SENSE so we can publish weekly and correctly inform millions of people, please do not hesitate to reach me.

NK 105-1910

"We hold such contacts in strict confidence.

"Our headquarters is conveniently located and we invite you to visit when you come to N.Y. or New Jersey.

"SEND US THE AMMUNITION AND WE WILL DO THE FIGHTING WITH THE PRINTED WORD! REMEMBER, THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD!

"For Christ and Country,

"CONDE MC GINLEY"

Judge Armstrong Foundation of Ft. Worth, Texas

In Issue No. 245 of "Common Sense", dated February 1, 1956, there is a story under the caption "Patriots Last Works Available". In this article, it was announced that the Judge Armstrong Foundation of Ft. Worth, Texas had turned over the entire inventory of books of the late Judge GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG to the CEA. The article indicated that the books were now available to readers of "Common Sense".

On August 17, 1956, [REDACTED] "Ft. Worth Star-Telegram", a daily newspaper, Ft. Worth, Texas, made available for review her file on GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR., from which the following information was obtained:

JAMES MC LEAN, of AP News Features, interviewed GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR., at Natchez, Mississippi, on 11/12/49 and released the following information for publication in morning papers of November 13, 1949:

GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR. was born in Jasper County, Texas, the son of an itinerant Methodist minister. He was 84 years old at time of above interview. He graduated from University of Texas School of Law in 1880, and began the practice of law at Ft. Worth, Texas, in 1890. He was elected County Judge of Tarrant County, Ft. Worth, in 1897, and became known as "JUDGE ARMSTRONG".

b6
b7c

NK 105-1910

He resided during his latter years at Woodstock Plantation at Natchez, Mississippi, but maintained a residence at Ft. Worth, Texas, for voting purposes. He gained considerable wealth as a result of oil ventures, banking, cattle, utilities, steel manufacturing in Texas, and land buying in Mississippi. He is reported to have owned at least three oil fields in three counties consisting of 18 oil wells, and 38 plantations.

At the date of the interview on November 12, 1949, Mr. ARMSTRONG stated that three years previously, he had established at Ft. Worth, Texas, the "Judge Armstrong Foundation, which 'siphons off' about 15% of his income for tax exempt charitable and educational purposes". Judge ARMSTRONG was an exponent against what he termed "racial mongrelization" which in his view was the "intermingling of Jews, Gentiles and Negroes in the same schools", which he violently opposed.

Judge ARMSTRONG stated that among others, his organization had contributed to GERALD L.K. SMITH, of the Christian Nationalist Crusade with headquarters at St. Louis, Missouri, and to EMORY BURKE, leader of an Anti-Negro and Anti-Jewish group of Atlanta, Georgia, and to R.H. BEST, of Boston, Massachusetts, a former American newspaperman in Germany who was convicted of treason for Nazi propaganda work. Judge ARMSTRONG claimed that SMITH, BURKE and BEST were "persecuted persons".

The "Star-Telegram" file contains a news story which appeared in the "Star-Telegram" in evening edition of January 21, 1952, concerning a suit which ARMSTRONG had filed in Ft. Worth in U.S. District Court in which he sought refund from U.S. Treasury of $620.00 and $6,276.30 for alleged erroneous income tax assessments made in 1948. In this suit, Judge ARMSTRONG and his wife alleged that in 1948, they had contributed $1,000.00 and in 1948, had contributed $10,000.00 to the Judge Armstrong Foundation and that they had not been allowed deductions on the same.

A story in the "Star-Telegram", morning edition of November 27, 1952, stated that the basis of the suit was "whether or not the Judge Armstrong Foundation, now inactive, was entirely for charitable, educational and religious purposes".

This article said further that counsel for the ARMSTRONGS said the Foundation was created in 1945. The Government contended and won a decision to the effect that the Judge Armstrong Foundation was not entitled to the exemption of the Act because it was not devoted exclusively to religious, educational or charitable purposes. The government contended that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue had based his decision on the fact that the Foundation was distributing pamphlets "constituting propaganda designed to influence legislation" and, therefore, was not educational but "political" in nature.

According to this article, excerpts from one pamphlet read before the Federal Judge at trial of the case suggested that President WOODROW WILSON and FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT were Jews, and referred to President HARRY S. TRUMAN as a "Communist Traitor". The article also said that Judge ARMSTRONG, an advocate of "white supremacy", had asked in a preface to one volume of his writings that Congress abolish the 14th and 15th Amendments, which had freed the Negroes and guaranteed them their voting rights. At the trial, Judge ARMSTRONG testified that one of the main purposes of the Judge Armstrong Foundation was to print and disseminate his writings. The government, on the other hand, contended that the Foundation distributed pamphlets and books which were anti-Semitic, advocated repeal of the 14th and 15th Amendments and alleged a sinister world Communistic conspiracy by Jews, and that it was used for propaganda and to try to influence legislation.

According to a news item in "Star-Telegram" on October 13, 1954, Judge ARMSTRONG died at Natchez, Mississippi, on October 1, 1954.

T-4, of known reliability, was contacted on February 26, 1957, and reported that no information has been developed regarding the financial operation of CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense", or of the financial operation of the CEA, publisher of "Common Sense".

Copies of "Common Sense" received through the mail at Newark continue to be enclosed in envelopes bearing the return address of CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, Union, N.J.

DETAILS:

[redacted] listed as [redacted], according to [redacted] appearing in the 11/1/56 issue of "Common Sense", believed to be identical with [redacted]
[redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] also known as [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] was reported as the owner of a 1951 Chrysler Sedan, Iowa license [redacted] from which a woman distributed copies of "Common Sense" in the Auditorium Parking Lot on 7/7/54.

b6
b7C

On January 23, 1956, [redacted] and [redacted] voluntarily appeared at the Sioux City, Iowa Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and advised that they had formerly subscribed for three months to the "Daily Worker" and "The Worker" for the purpose of learning about what the CP was thinking and doing. They stated they had not renewed their subscription and wanted the FBI to know of their purpose in subscribing to these publications.

b6
b7C

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper and "The Worker" is the Sunday edition of the "Daily Worker".

NK 105-1910

[redacted] indicated that they had travelled extensively during the preceding eight months throughout the United States contacting patriotic organizations in an effort to awaken Americans to un-American activities and their conversation was to the effect that they have personal files on many organizations. [redacted] stated he was a [redacted] the Sons of the American Revolution and [redacted] the Iowa State Sons of the American Revolution.

b6
b7C

On April 23, 1957, [redacted] [redacted] Sioux City, Iowa, "Journal-Tribune", made available newspaper items referring to [redacted] as being associated with the National States Rights Conference held in Memphis, Tenn., and the effort to form a third party endorsing T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, of Richmond, Va., as a candidate for President of the United States.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he had known [redacted] [redacted] for the past several years and that in his opinion, she was a "crack pot". He stated she is very much anti-Communist, anti-Jewish, and very fanatic in all her views. He cited as an example of the thinking and belief of [redacted] a pretest she had made asking the Sioux City, Iowa "Journal-Tribune" to stop carrying the syndicated articles of columnist GEORGE SOKOLSKY because he was Jewish.

b6
b7C

The current city directory and telephone directory of [redacted] reflects that [redacted] resides at [redacted]

b6
b7C

HANNAH CUMMINGS, a stockholder in CEA, according to the most recent statement of ownership appearing in the 11/1/56 issue of "Common Sense", resides at 1336 West Lycoming St., Philadelphia, Pa.

On April 4, 1957, [redacted] [redacted], advised SA [redacted] that HANNAH CUMMINGS, who resides at 1336 West Lycoming St., was single and lived with [redacted] at that address. [redacted] revealed that HANNAH CUMMINGS

b6
b7C

NK 105-1910

is an employee of the Bell Telephone Company and described her as white, 5'5", 135 lbs., 55 to 60 years of age, red auburn hair streaked with grey. According to [redacted] HANNAH CUMMINGS was known in the neighborhood as having "radical political ideas"; however, she could not provide any specific information in this regard nor could she elaborate on the terminology "radical political ideas".

b6
b7C

A review of records of the deeds to property located at the Philadelphia City Hall made by SE [redacted] on 4/17/57 reflected that BRIDGET CUMMINGS, widow of JOHN CUMMINGS, who died on 9/5/25, transferred the deed for the property located at 1336 West Lycoming St. on 11/2/45 to her daughter, HANNAH B. CUMMINGS, for the consideration of $100.00.

b6
b7C

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on 4/19/57 that HANNAH B. CUMMINGS was an employee of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, 1631 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., and was presently employed as a "senior clerk" in the General Traffic Engineer's Office, third floor, Widener Building, Philadelphia, Pa. She was originally employed on 3/20/16 and is now eligible for retirement. She had been a supervisor of long distance operators up to 1945. Her date of birth was 2/24/98, Philadelphia, Pa.

On 4/25/57 [redacted] who is employed as [redacted] out of the Sailor's Union of the Pacific, reported to SA [redacted] that he had recently completed a trip to Israel and that upon his return to New Orleans he had taken the Missouri-Pacific Railroad from New Orleans to Houston. During the trip, he engaged in conversation with a man who called himself [redacted] a [redacted] for the [redacted].

b7C

[redacted] furnished [redacted] with a number of items, including a copy of "The Coming Red Dictatorship", issued by "Common Sense; windshield stickers bearing the slogan "Do Not Persecute the Negro. The international Jew is the perpetrator of world Communism and racial agitation. Arthur Spingarn, President of NAACP, is a Jew, not a Negro"; and

b6
b7C

NK 105-1910

a windshield sticker bearing the slogan "For racial privacy today and forever join K.K.K. now. Write to Box 5062, Waco, Texas".

On 4/24/57 [] received a carbon copy of a letter dated April 21, 1957, at Houston, Texas, addressed to Mr. CONDE MC GINLEY, P.O. 807, Union, N.J. On top of the letter was a sticker printed as follows: []

b6
b7C

In the letter to MC GINLEY, [] asked MC GINLEY to send a copy of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" and a one year subscription of "Common Sense" to []

b6
b7C

[] also asked MC GINLEY to send him several publications.

The letter dated April 21, 1957, indicates that [] is a regular correspondent of MC GINLEY. In the letter, [] indicated that he was "glad to hear of your visit to the Biloxi (Miss.) meeting in order that you can get away from all of your worries and at the same time meet lots of fine people, I am sure that you will meet a few of my co-workers".

b6
b7C

Copies of the publication "Common Sense" continue to be mailed in a white envelope bearing the return address "Christian Educational Association, Union, N.J.".

The publications available through the CEA continue to be advertised in the pages of "Common Sense".

The United States Department of Justice, in a memorandum dated May 13, 1957, set forth the opinion that a study of available information relating to the CEA of Union, N.J., has resulted in a finding that the organization and its activities are not such as to bring it within the purview of Executive Order 10450 at this time.

Under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U.S. House of Representatives published a "preliminary report on Neo-Fascist and Hate groups" in which the growth, objectives and the editor of "Common Sense" are discussed at length. The report indicates the publication has a fluctuating circulation of between 30,000 and 100,000 copies.

NK 105-1910

In the HCUA report, "Common Sense" is described as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee". According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi Regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

Dear Sir:

Being an old broken-down intelligence officer from World War II, I know you are interested in all propaganda efforts going on.

The enclosed came to my attention and I thought you might find it of possible value; the odds are ten to one you know all about this outfit already but it doesn't hurt to cut down on the odds.

Sincerely,

Ralph A. Brooks

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION CONCERNING

Enclosed herewith are two copies of Issue No. 293 of "Common Sense" furnished to the NYO on 5/7/58 by [redacted]. The main article of this issue, entitled "Zionists - The Only Real Masters of Deceit", states that pages of Mr. HOOVER's book, "Masters of Deceit", were written by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the American Jewish Committee. This article contains the usual anti-Jewish theme of previous issues of "Common Sense" which is well known to the Bureau. The above is for the information of the Bureau.

It is noted that "Common Sense", published by the Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, was characterized in a report issued on 12/17/54, by the Committee on Un-American Activities of the US House of Representatives as a "hate group" vehicle, publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the committee". According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism", and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi Regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

Two copies of this letter are being furnished to the Newark Office for information.

Facts of complaint

Complainant stated he is receiving "junk" through the mail from subject organization which is anti-Semitic. Complainant also thought that perhaps the material was pro-Communist; but on re-reading the stuff he determined that it was not pro-Communist but appeared mainly designed to stir up class hatreds. Complainant was informed that FBI had no jurisdiction in the matter, but his call would be made a matter of record.

F.B. Of Investigation

Dear Sir

I have found this literature on the floor of the bus I was looking thru the bus at the end of the line at Abington Sq. 8th Ave line which I work for Fifth Ave Coach. I was going South Bound with the bus the time I stopped at Abington Sq. was 6:15 P.M. it was laying on the floor. I have no knowledge who could have brought it on the bus.

This literature seems to ~~be~~ condemn the Jewish people as a whole.

This literature is trying to bring race hatred here.

I have no interest in Russia or the communist party.

I condemn this type of writing and I ask you to please stop him or them people.

Respectfully Yours,

Literature forwarded to Bureau

The "Morning Freiheit" of September 8, 1958, on page 4, columns 1-2, contained an open letter to Arthur Summerfield complaining about an anti-Semitic sheet they received from the "Christian Educational Association" of Union, New Jersey. The letter continues:

Where is the F.B.I.? Where is the Un-American Committee of Congress? Are they so busy seeking "conspiracies" among peace fighters, among Negro fighters of racism, that they do not have time to do something about these real conspirators, the racists against the Jews and the Negroes?

This is a question every honest person should ask? We should like to ask you, the Postmaster of the United States: How can you permit the Post Office to distribute hooligan, anti-Semitic hate sheets?

We demand of you: stop this stream of poisonous incitement! Stop these calls for pogroms!

The above was translated from the Yiddish and is being submitted for your information. Translated by INTERPRETER.
